Sino-Soviet Bloc Credits and Grants Extended During 1957

During 1957 the Sino-Soviet Bloc extended almost $481 million in credits and grants to underdeveloped countries of the Free World. This total represents more than 25 percent of the total $1.9 billion extended by the Sino-Soviet Bloc since 1 January 1954. The USSR and Csechoalovakia provided all of the large credits and Syria and Egypt the major recipients.
